RepRisk becomes proud endorser of the Principles for Responsible Banking

February 19, 2019

“RepRisk is a proud supporter of the Principles for Responsible Banking and its purpose of embedding sustainability across all business areas in the banking industry,” states Dr. Philipp Aeby, CEO of RepRisk. “RepRisk had its genesis in the investment and commercial banking industry, and for more than a decade we have been supporting banks worldwide in identifying ESG and business conduct risks related to their clients, transactions, suppliers, and investments. Our aim is to increase transparency and thus help drive accountability and responsible behavior of companies.”

The Principles for Responsible Banking have been founded and developed by 28 banks from around the globe under the United Nations Environment Programme – Finance Initiative (UNEP FI). The Principle for Responsible Banking provide the framework for the sustainable banking system of the future. They aim to align the banking industry with society’s goals as expressed in the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Paris Climate Agreement.
