

RepRisk wins award at the Sustainability Congress 2011

On Tuesday May 3 2011, RepRisk received the award for ‘Most Important Innovation in Sustainability’ at the Sustainability Congress 2011 held at the World Conference Center in Bonn.

The annual conference is one of the main event in the sustainable investment industry calendar, with this year’s sponsors including Sarasin, Pictet, Lacuna and Oekorenta. RepRisk CEO Philipp Aeby was in attendance to accept the award on the floor of the former German Parliament, presented by Chairman of the Jury Professor Thomas Meuser.

Philipp Aeby said “We were delighted and honored to receive this prestigious award, which recognizes the uniqueness of what we do and the important role our ESG data plays in the sustainability arena.”
