

RepRisk attends Spring Symposium event in London March 27-28

Stella Kenway, Strategic Analyst of RepRisk attended the Spring Symposium from March 27-28 in London. Hosted by US SIF, UKSIF and Eurosif, the international symposium provided Stella with the opportunity to discuss developments and emerging issues in sustainable and responsible investment internationally. It also provided an opportunity to discuss different corporate engagement strategies between North America and Europe, meet some of the leaders in ESG investment in Europe, as well as network with Chief Executive Officers of national and regional SRI organizations.
