

Conference in London: Governance, Risk and Internal Controls

RepRisk joined forces with Ecofact AG to jointly sponsor the Governance, Risk and Internal Controls in Banking Conference that was held in London on February 4 – 5, 2013.

Senior auditors from leading banks participated in the event to discuss the implementation of internal controls to minimize systemic and reputational risk through governance failings.

Philipp Aeby, CEO of RepRisk, and Olivier Jaeggi, Chairman and Managing Partner of Ecofact, gave a presentation on managing ESG risks, and were joined by Yann Kermode, Executive Director, Environmental and Social Risk, UBS, who explained how his bank benefited from working with both companies.
