RepRisk opens new Americas hub in Toronto

Global presence enables 24-hour business operations

RepRisk, the leading provider of research and metrics on ESG risk and business conduct, is proud to announce the opening of an office in Toronto, Canada.

Through a global presence with RepRisk offices in Canada, Germany, the Philippines, and Switzerland, RepRisk moves to a setup that allows for 24-hour business operations. This further improves RepRisk's ability to serve its clients, which include the world's largest financial institutions and corporates. Soon, RepRisk will also have 24-hour client services available.

"Continuous business operations are crucial in our mission to provide clients with daily-updated data and actionable information for decision-making," says Philipp Aeby, CEO of RepRisk. "Our global team of analysts works around-the-clock, curating data that enables our clients to identify and monitor ESG and business conduct risks in their business and investments."

RepRisk runs the world's largest due diligence database on ESG and business conduct risks, covering over 95,000 listed and non-listed companies across all sectors and countries, and includes emerging and frontier markets.
