

RepRisk Touches '60,000' Company Profiles Being Covered Under Its Risk Management Database

December 17, 2015

RepRisk crosses the mark of "60,000" customers in helping the latter with risk management related assessments on a global scale.

RepRisk provides leading solutions through "dynamic business intelligence" regarding the risks involved on the front of governance, environmental and social issues.

Last month, on the 18th of November 2015, the company of RepRisk made an announcement stating that "ESG Risk Platform" has reached "60,000" number of private and public companies under its wings coming almost every corporate sector from all over the world and throughout the country. The operations and research's head at RepRisk, Nicole Streuli-Fürst said:

"We just achieved the milestone of covering 50,000 companies in March of this year – and now, we have already reached the next milestone of 60,000. This fast growth is possible because RepRisk research is updated on a daily basis. Every day, we not only capture and analyze new risk information, but we also add to the database up to 50 new companies that are exposed to ESG risks for the first time."

The ESG Risk platform initiated by RepRisk was launched at the year of 2006. At present, the platform processes "risk profiles for over 60,000 public and private companies" besides more than "15,000 projects". Moreover, RepRisk is also adept at providing "sector risk profiles, country risk profiles, as well as data on NGOs, governmental bodies, and ESG issues and topics".

The said platform is useful for the "financial institutions and corporate" throughout the world, whereby it helps as a research cum monitoring tool to assess "risk management, compliance, investment management, corporate benchmarking, and supplier risk".

Furthermore, Nicole Streuli-Fürst adds:

"Our goal has been, and continues to be, to set the standard in ESG risk quantification and we remain focused on our mission to offer the most dynamic, comprehensive, and curated ESG risk data available.”
