December 2018

The FactSet EMEA Investment Process Symposium's 2019 agenda covers various aspects of asset management, including investment principles, processes, technology, and regulations.

RepRisk will participate in the following panel:

Thursday, June 27, 9:00 am to 9:45 am

- Innovative Data Panel: Finding Signal in the Noise

RepRisk speaker:

Danilo Chiono

Sales Manager at RepRisk

Danilo Chiono is a Sales Manager at RepRisk, based at the company's headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland. He manages a team of Sales Executives operating in four continents. RepRisk Sales team supports several of the world's leading institutional investors in integrating ESG risk factors into quantitative investment strategies, portfolio risk monitoring, pre-investment due diligence and post investment compliance to internal norms, external commitments or international standards. Danilo's task is to make sure that RepRisk bespoke solutions are indeed the best fit for the specific needs of RepRisk's clients.

Prior to RepRisk, Danilo worked for almost ten years at Italy's leading financial media group, ILSole24Ore: first in the marketing department in Milan and thereafter in charge of international Sales in London, where he came to work together with leading banks and asset managers in the roll-out of multimedia communications campaigns. Danilo also had stints in technology companies supporting financial clients in the area of customer satisfaction and marketing.

Danilo earned a bachelor's degree in Economics & Banking from the University of Siena (Italy). He further studied Corporate Finance and Marketing at the Aarhus Business School (Denmark).
